Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the first petitioner is the son of the second petitioner and that the first petitioner married the fourth respondent on 13.03.2005 at Palvancha without any dowry. He further submits that within a few days after the marriage disputes arose and the fourth respondent, not being interested to lead the marital life, was reluctant to live with the first petitioner. Thereafter, the first petitioner filed a divorce petition in O.P.No.48 of 2006 before the Senior Civil Judge, Huzurabad on 09.09.2006 and in that regard the respondents 2 and 3, at the instance of the fourth respondent, took the petitioners and forcibly made them to execute an agreement dated 09.10.2006 for payment of Rs.12,50,000/- to the fourth respondent for giving divorce. He further submits that the respondents 2 and 3 threatened to arrest the petitioners and implicate them in false cases and accordingly they were forcibly detained and an amount of Rs.3,00,000/- was forcibly collected along with a postdated cheque for Rs.2,00,000/-.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that with regard to the aforesaid action of the respondents 2 and 3, the petitioners made a representation before the first respondent on 12.04.2007 to make enquiry and protect their lives by doing justice to them, but the same has not been considered and disposed.

3. Though notice before admission was ordered on 16.05.2007 none of the respondents filed any counter. However, as there is no acknowledgement in proof of filing the said representation dated 12.04.2007, the petitioners are permitted to make a fresh representation before the first respondent in continuation of the earlier representation dated 12.04.2007 and if any such representation is filed, the first respondent shall get the representation enquired into and shall take appropriate action in accordance with law.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
